THE ELECTION. ----

Ward Clerks, Attention.

The polls will be open at 10 a. m. and clos at 4 p. m. Let every Republican see that he votes the Straight ticket. Remember that every split vote is an indirect, and in some cases a direct aid to the opposition, and that a Fusion victory means an endorsement of the steal by Garcelon and Council. THE WARD CLERKS WILL GREATLY FACILI-TATE OUR WORK, AND CONFER A FAVOR, BY MAKING FULL RETURNS TO THIS OFFICE AS SOON AS POSSIBLE AFTER THE COMPLETION OF THE COUNT IN THEIR RESPECTIVE WARDS.

An Elopement.

Quite a little excitement was created Fore street, near the foot of High, Saturday, by an old gentleman who tried to get a runa way daughter from the man she had eloped with, and who had arrived in the city by the Ogdensburg train. The couple had, however, been married in New Hampshire, and the bride had her certificate, so, while the irate father went to the sheriff's for a writ, the couple dusted via the Maine Central.

A horse belonging to Edmund Higgins, of Scarboro, ran away Saturday, and smashed the pung to pieces on Clark street bridge, and finally plunged into the water but was rescued. Mr. Samuel Bryant, a veteran of the war of 1812, fell on the sidewalk Saturday and seriously injured his shoulder. Mr Bryant is about 80 years of age, and was at one time confined in Dartmoor prison.

Torn by a Dog. Mr. Joseph Hackett, of Falmouth, lately bought a huge English mastiff and placed him n his barn. The other night he had occasion to enter the stable when the dog sprung upon him and Mr. Hackett could not order him off. A desperate fight ensued in which the dog was mastered and finally shot, but not until he bad jascerated Mr. Hackett's shoulder and hands teriously.

A Word to Irishmen. It is well understood that the Fusionists of Portland are seeking the election of Frederick Fox, not because they believe the interests of the city will be better subserved by him than by Mr. Senter, but simply that they may claim that the people of Portland endorse the men who composed Garcelon's Council. For the mayoralty they care not a straw, but the leaders are ready to spend money like water to secure an endorsement of Fogg and Chase and the other conspirators. They are appealing to you, Irishmea, to assist them in this effort. Before you lend your aid for this purpose we want you to stop and consider. The man who was the most conspicuous in Garcelon's Council was F. M. Fogg of Auburn. He is one of the men you are called upon to endorse by your votes to-day. He is the editor of the Greenback Labor-Chronicle published at Auburn. In the last issue of that paper appears this li

In the last issue of that paper appears this libel upon you and your countrymen:

The fact is, there is no famine! [In Ireland.] Who has starved? Let two Corkonians die of hunger, and a million bushels grain can be landed there in two weeks! Eight hundred vessels (never known before) block our piers waiting cargoes, while elevators are packed from Atlantic to Mississippi! Grain is cheaper at Queenstown than at Chicago? The famine boom is an infamous scheme to distract attention from Shylock's gigantic American conspiracy! Nobody is starving in Ireland! Are not steamers loaded to the water's edge with grain and cattle leaving every Irish port every day for England, while Castle and Church are passing round the hat?

And you are urged to throw your votes so as

And you are urged to throw your votes so as to endorse this man who publishes to the world that you are liars because you say that your countrymen in Ireland are suffering; who represents you to your fellow citizens as obtaining money under false pretences; who allows his paper to describe the plans of relief for your starving countrymen as an "infamous scheme." Recollect that this man was called here to address you by the leaders of the Democratic party, and did address you; recollect that the leaders of the Democratic party drew up resolutions endorsing this man; recollect that they have recognized him and still recognize him as one of the foremost men in the conglomerate party that is supporting Mr. Fox. Why, the very issue of the paper which contains this libel on you, contains also a announcement that Capt. C. H. Chase, one of the recognized Democratic leaders in this city is expected to speak in Auburn in support of this man who publishes you to, the whole world as liars and swindlers. If Frederick Fox is elected Mayor Mr. Fogg will regard it justly as an endorsement of him and will publish it to the world as such. If you are ready to endorse such libels upon yourselves as the above extract, vote to-day for Frederick Fox.

MUSIC AND THE DRAMA.

LOTTA. If Lotta is wise she will "shake" the "Little Detective." As a play it is the veriest trash. This fact would not prove of such material consequence provided the drama afforded her an opportunity to display her peculiar abilities, but it doesn't. Lotta's forte lies in her speaking eyes, her mobility of features, her peculiar twists and turns, her agility and grace, and especially the child-like appearance she possesses joined to the qualities mentioned. In the Little Detective her best personation is that of the placid old nurse which she assumes remarkably well, but many others can equal her. Her Irish boy, young city swell and German girl are good, but there are fifty who can excel her. In fact, those who failed to see Musette have about as much idea of Lotta at her best as an imported pineapple tastes like that nice fruit right off the plant. Then again, Mr. Marble, who adds so much to the effect of Lotta's acting in Musette, is almost a nonentity, in this plece. The songs and dances of Lotta were the strong feature of the performance and were applauded freely. At the close of the first act the curtain was raised on demand. The audience packed the house as on the night previous. We hope to see Lotta again next season and in La Ciyale.

A Pleasant Occasion. On Saturday night the Board of Aldermen participated, with invited guests, in a dinner at the City Hotel at their own expense. About thirty plates were laid and the tables were beautifully and tastefully decorated with floral and other adornments. The supper itself was inferior to none of those repasts to which former city governments have done justice, and reflected the greatest credit upon Mr. Martin. The service was unexceptionable. Chairman Small presided, and after the banquet the even-farewell supper to most of the Aldermen. Attention Ward 6. Singularly enough an effort has been made in Portland to create the impression that the proposed Bridgton railroad is inimical to Portland interests; and a correspondent of the Advertiser goes so far as to allege that what Bridgton is really moving for is a new line to Boston on account of some dissatisfaction with Portland & Ogdensburg connections. This theory is altogether too absurd for notice. What Bridgton wants, and is determined to have if possible, are equal rights, privileges and business facilittes with other manufacturing towns and every enterprise tending to the pawnbroker's shop without license, 1; resisting police, 5; obstructing sidewalk, 12; shouting on streets, 19; snowballing on streets, 29; throwing stones on streets, 13; playing bat and ball on streets, 3. Total, 2,213.

Of the above number 992 were put before the municipal court, 1023 discharged without complaint and 103 discharged by consent of complainants. Ireland leads the list of arrests with 1297, and the United States follows with 740. All other nations are fairly represented. The total number of lodgings furnished was 1157. There has been received and restored to the owners $5272 worth of stolen property. Amount of money collected for hack and dray licenses was $213.50. There were 1157 lodgings furnished during the year against 3000 in 1878, showing a very large falling off. There were 136 less arrests this year than in 1879.

There were 285 stores found open and secured the past year, 41 stray teams found and put up, 76 lost children found and restored, 7 fires extinguished without alarm, 2 cases of small pox reported, and 17 sick and mad dogs killed.

Eben Barton met a severe accident the past week. He was at work in the woods and in reaching to cut a limb over his head, his ax bounded back, and cut a long and deep gash in his face. Dr. Cobb was called and dressed the wound, and Mr. Barton is doing as well as can be expected.

EVERYBODY Knows that so long as there is proud flesh in a sore or wound, it will not heal. The obstacle is speedily removed, and the flesh reunited by HENRY'S CARBOLIC SALVE, the finest embodiment in existence of that supreme purifier, carbolic acid. Its emollient ingredients modify its pungent acid basis so that it never cauterizes, stings or scarifies the diseased part. Sores and eruptions of all kinds are cured by it. All Druggists sell it. Oxygenated Bitters cure Dyspepsia. mar1
